

Minsk, Belarus

Trisha Reports

After the IMB conference in Holzhausen, Germany, Trisha went on to Minsk, Belarus to participate in the Practically Speaking English evangelistic event. The event was conducted by the gifted groups from Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, and Texas. The report she brought back is that this was a great event as usual.

589 completed the course and received a certificate. Of the 589 who completed the course, 188 indicated that they had prayed and asked Jesus to be their Lord. In addition, 306 of the students indicated that they would like to know more about the Christian life. The incredible follow-up team has already begun the process of following up on all those.

When Jody was banned from Belarus, we never doubted that God had already raised up men and women to continue the work in Belarus. We are very grateful to our dear brothers and sisters who share our love for those people.

2009 Calendar is Filling Quickly

No Shortage of Work with New Opportunities

We spent a week in Nicaragua meeting with pastors and visiting churches to coordinate and schedule events for 2009 and 2010.

We are glad to be returning to our Baptist partner churches in Managua (Hebron, Hermon, Libertad) as well as our new partners (Canaan in Managua, San Rafael del Sur and Mt. Olivet in Las Maderas). We also are returning to University Polytechnic (UPOLI) for some business English events.

Watch for the next e-News which will be coming very soon. There are no-experience-necessary opportunities for one and two weeks, for individuals, couples and families. In the meantime, click on the link to our Project Schedule (in the side-bar).
